Official University Retirement Benefits

To be eligible to receive official University retirement benefits, an individual must:

- Be considered in retirement status by any recognized State of Arizona retirement program in which the individual is participating;
- Be at least 50 years of age;
- Have completed five years of continuous, full-time employment in the Arizona University System (or approved leave of absence or long-term disability) immediately preceding retirement; and
- Have not been terminated for cause by the University.

Notwithstanding these provisions, university peace officers who have retired before age 50 pursuant to the provisions of the Arizona Public Safety Personnel Retirement System but have completed five years of continuous, full-time employment in the Arizona University System (or approved leave of absence or long-term disability) immediately preceding retirement shall also be eligible for this benefit.
