D. Request for Exceptions

The process to request an exception is outlined in the Procedure to Request an Exception for Weapons on Campus.

Any request to use, possess, display, or store a weapon on University property in connection with official University business must first be reviewed by the responsible Dean, or Department Head. The Dean, or Department Head and may comment and shall forward the request to the Provost for review and comment. The request must:

- Identify the purpose of the request;
- Identify how this request furthers the mission of the University;
- Identify the Weapon;
- Picture of the Weapon;
- Identify the duration of the request (for exemption requests longer than twelve (12) months, an exemption request renewal is required annually prior to the end of the current exemption period);
- Identify a responsible person;
- Identify how the Weapon will be secured
- i. Identify how the Weapon will or may be used.

The request will be evaluated by the Chief of Police, or their designated representative and a written decision rendered within ten (10) working days . If the request is approved, the approval will include any conditions or restrictions necessary to require safety and consistency with the intent of Arizona Board of Regents ABOR policy. If approval is given for an indefinite period of time, it must be reviewed annually and renewed by the requestor. The University of Arizona Police Department (UAPD) will keep all requests on file and available for confirmation by police officers.
